SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of:

Five (5) years.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall comply with the mandatory conditions of supervision outlined in 18 U.S.C. § 3583(d) and USSG § 5D1.3(a) and the standard (discretionary) conditions outlined in USSG 5D1.3(c) as noted in paragraphs 133 and 135 of the presentence report that I am adopting in full. Standard conditions of supervision 1 through 9 and 13 serve the statutory sentencing purposes of public protection and rehabilitation pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a)(2)(C) and (D). Standard conditions of supervision 10 and 12 serve the statutory sentencing purpose of public protection pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a)(2)(C). Standard condition of supervision 11 ensures that the defendant does not engage in activities that may potentially conflict with the other conditions of supervision and that may pose risks to the defendant's probation officer. The defendant shall also comply with the following special condition for the reasons set forth in the presentence report which has previously been adopted by the Court as the finding of facts for the purposes of sentencing:

You must submit to substance abuse testing to determine if you have used a prohibited substance. You must contribute to the cost of such program not to exceed the amount determined reasonable by the court approved "U.S. Probation Office's Sliding Scale for Services," and you will cooperate in securing any applicable third-party payment, such as insurance or Medicaid. This special condition is imposed based upon the defendant's prior use of illegal drugs.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 - ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☐ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. ☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: 4:21-cr-552-SAL
CASE NUMBER: USA v. Leroy Junior Cunningham

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines, based on your criminal record, personal history or characteristics, that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer, with the prior approval of the Court, may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

PRELIMINARY ORDER OF FORFEITURE
AS TO LEROY JUNIOR CUNNINGHAM

This matter is before the court on the motion of the United States for a Preliminary Order of Forfeiture as to Defendant Leroy Junior Cunningham, ("Cunningham", "Defendant"), based upon the following:

1. On August 24, 2021, a multi-count Indictment was filed charging Cunningham with:

Count 1: Conspiracy to possess with intent to distribute and distribute 100 grams or more of a mixture or substance containing a detectable amount of heroin, 500 grams or more of a mixture or substance containing a detectable amount of methamphetamine, and 500 grams or more of a mixture or substance containing a detectable amount of cocaine, in violation of 21 U.S.C. § § 841(a)(1), (b)(1)(A), (b)(1)(B) and 846;

Counts 3, 4, 5 & 8: Possession with intent to distribute and distribute a quantity of heroin, in violation of 21 U.S.C. § § 841(a)(1) and (b)(1)(C);

Count 7: Possession with intent to distribute and distribute 50 grams or more of a mixture or substance containing a detectable amount of methamphetamine, a quantity of cocaine, and a quantity of cocaine base, in violation of 21 U.S.C. § § 841(a)(1), (b)(1)(B) and (b)(1)(C);

Count 9:

Possession with intent to distribute and distribute a quantity of cocaine and a quantity of methamphetamine in violation of 21 U.S.C. § § 841(a)(1) and (b)(1)(C).

2. Pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(a), the Indictment contained a forfeiture allegation providing that, upon Cunningham's conviction, certain properties enumerated therein, or equivalent substitute assets, would be subject to forfeiture to the United States. As specified therein, such assets include, but are not limited to, the following

Proceeds/Forfeiture Judgment:¹

A sum of money equal to all property the Defendants obtained as a result of the drug offenses charged in the Indictment, and all interest and proceeds traceable thereto as a result for their violation of 21 U.S.C. §§ 841, 843 and 846.

3. On November 17, 2021, Cunningham signed a plea agreement agreeing to forfeiture, and on December 1, 2021, he pled guilty to Count 1 of the Indictment.

4. Based upon Defendant's conviction, the court has determined that the government has established the requisite nexus between the amount of proceeds and the offense for which Cunningham has been convicted; therefore, the United States is entitled to a preliminary order of forfeiture, subject to the provisions of 21 U.S.C. § 853 governing third party rights. The court has determined that the property described above is subject to forfeiture, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. §§ 853 and 881, and 28 U.S.C. § 2461(c). Therefore, it is ORDERED that all property, real or personal, which constitutes or is derived from proceeds traceable to Defendant's violations of Title 21, United States Code, Sections 841 and 846 are forfeited to the United States.

¹ The government is pursuing a forfeiture judgment against the defendant in the amount of $25,000.00.

5. The Court further finds that one or more of the conditions set forth in Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(p), exists.

6. It is, therefore, ORDERED that the United States is entitled to forfeit substitute assets equal to the value of the proceeds obtained by Defendant Cunningham as a result of his violations of Title 21, United States Code, Sections 841 and 846, and that such substitute assets shall not exceed the value of the proceeds Defendant Cunningham obtained of $25,000.00.

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED,

1. The below-described property and all right, title, and interest of the Defendant Leroy Junior Cunningham in and to such property is hereby forfeited to the United States of America for disposition in accordance with the law subject to the rights of third parties in such property under 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

2. FORFEITURE IS ORDERED against Cunningham and in favor of the United States in the amount of $25,000.00, along with appropriate costs and interest thereon at the rate provided for in 28 U.S.C. § 1961. The United States may at any time move pursuant to Rule 32.2(e) to amend this Order to substitute property to satisfy the judgment.

3. The United States may sell or otherwise dispose of any substitute assets in accordance with law as required to satisfy the above imposed judgment.

4. Upon entry of this Order, the Government is further authorized to conduct discovery to identify or locate other substitute assets in accordance with Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(3); and to commence proceedings that comply with statutes governing third party rights, if applicable.

5. The government is not required to publish notice regarding the judgment against Defendant; however, the Order shall be recorded in the records of the County Clerk's Office in the County of the debtor's residence, place of business, and any and all other counties in which the debtor has either real or personal property as a lien thereon.

6. Upon entry of the criminal judgment, this Order becomes final as to Defendant and shall be made a part of the sentence and included in the criminal judgment.

7. The court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce this Order and to amend it as necessary, pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(e).

8. The Clerk, United States District Court, shall provide one (1) certified copy of this Order to the United States Attorney's Office.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.
